

BIG & SMALL

Hello there and welcome to the February edition of the Big and Small newsletter ! It's been a great year so far here at B&S HQ – here are the things we're shouting about this month...

Big and Small Recommissioned !

Great news everybody – Big and Small will be slamming back onto our screens with a brand new series! CBeebies have commissioned another 26 episodes, which will take the total to 78x11'. The 3rd series is currently in pre-production and is due to start filming in Ireland in May. This is great news for fans and licensees alike, as it will give us all new stories to enjoy and shows great commitment to the programme and the characters from the CBeebies controllers.

Big and Small Tread the Boards in Canada

The other BIG news this month is that Big and Small are soon to have their very own live stagershow in Canada! Tickadeeboo Entertainment Inc are currently in pre-production for the spectacular show, which will tour several key regions in the country. Douglas John and Markus of Tickadeeboo Entertainment, the writers and producers of the new stage show said 'We're absolutely delighted to be involved in this exciting new development for the Big and Small characters and brand. Our theatrical show will delight fans both big and small from coast to coast across Canada!'

Big and Small Make their Presence Felt

Big and Small have really solidified their online presence this month, by establishing homes and gaining strong following on the big three social media sites – Facebook, Twitter and Youtube. Youtube is the latest medium to get the Big and Small treatment, where they now have their very own channel (which already has over 400 views). So, whether you want to share the love of Big and Small on Facebook, hear Small's funniest 'Smallism's on Twitter or watch hilarious scenes or full episodes on Youtube, your wish is now our e-command...

Facebook – <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Big-and-Small/180328128655785>

Twitter – Follow @SmallsWisdom

Youtube - <http://www.youtube.com/user/BigandSmallVidz>

That's all for this month, I'm off to explain to Big why the Big Society isn't to do with him directly. Till next time...

Look out for a special Comic Relief-themed newsletter next month !