

Big & Small

Hello there !

Welcome to the May edition of the Big and Small newsletter – this is the place to find out all the latest from the exciting world of Big and Small. This month...

We say a big hello to two new licensees, Fashion UK and Avanquest. Both are hard at work designing some great products, with Fashion UK making some cool apparel and Avanquest producing an interactive CD-ROM, featuring Spot the Difference, Snap, jigsaws and wordsearches. Big fun for small people !

The wonderful Big and Small costume made another outing this month, delighting shoppers at the St. Anns shopping centre in Harrow. If you would like to meet the coolest costume on the block, put the Amazing Great Children's Party in your diary, where he will be making a special appearance on 1 July 2009 in Battersea Park.

Our boys starred on the front page of the CBeebies Magazine this month, in the form of two adorable finger puppets. We can now rest assured that parents up and down the country will be treated to their very own Big and Small puppet shows.

Big and Small are soon to go Radio Ha-ha when they hit the airwaves on CBeebies Radio in September. Jim Carter is narrating the series and recently finished the recording sessions at Tamborine in London.

That's everything for this month, so until the next time, 'Woo-hoo !'
