

Big & Small

The nights are drawing in, Big's putting on all his coats and Small is discovering how much fun kicking through leaves can be. But to fend off those winter blues we have a wowzarama, super-duper, pickle-and-jam-filled newsletter for you to enjoy.

Lenny Lends a Big Hand at Brand Licensing

The major news this month is that Big and Small were a huge success at Brand Licensing, held at Olympia last week. The two stars were joined by comedy legend Lenny Henry, who voices the characters and Anne Brogan, executive producer of the show.

Kindle Entertainment hosted a presentation in the TV Lounge, with contributions from Lenny, Anne, licensing agent Ian Downes and current licensees HarperCollins and Jumbo.

We'd like to thank everybody who came to the presentation, and to remind you that the slides used can now be downloaded from the Licensee Area of our website, www.kindleentertainment.com/bigandsmall. For further information about Big and Small licensing, please contact Ian Downes at Start Licensing on 0208 337 7958 or email on start.licensing@btinternet.com.

Make Room on Your Bookshelf

The fantastic Big and Small books from HarperCollins launched this month, with copies of 'Meet Big, Meet Small', 'A Smallish Library' and 'Big and Small's Singalong Songbook' hitting the shelves of WHSmiths up and down the country. So you can say hello to your new bedtime story with the lovely re-telling of when Big met Small, and you can say goodbye to peace and quiet with the karaoke song book full of brilliant songs from the series.

Jumbo Jets into Stores

Great news from Jumbo – retailing giant Next are taking the Big and Small card game and Hobbycraft have taken the B&S jigsaws, which will be selling in all stores in two weeks time.

That's all from me, and as I finish writing the sun has come out – maybe it's not quite winter after all...
